Book name: The adventure of Robinson Crusoe

Author: Daniel De foe

Publisher: Little scholarz

Edition: 1st

Price: 28/-

Contents: This novel is a fictional autobiography of a young man named Robinson Crusoe. It is a very interesting adventure that was to change his life. During a sea journey, misfortune strikes and the ship is attacked by pirates and Crusoe is taken as slave. He dramatically escapes and lands on an uninhabited island.

The rest of the book tells us how Crusoe learns to live his life on an island for 27 years. He found a foot print which is not his and he found a man whom he helped and taught him to speak English. He named the man Friday because he met him on that day. One day a ship that had been a victim of mutiny arrives on the island. Robinson crusoe helped the captain and the prisoners to retrieve the ship and eventually sets off back to London.

Overall impression: This Book is inspired by the real story of Robinson Crusoe.

Suggestion: This is a very interesting adventure.
